

The Cover: The Gentry County Courthouse, located in Albany, Missouri, was built in 1884. The three-story brick building is of the High Victorian Italianate style with some Romanesque motifs. The courthouse was nominated to the National Register of Historic Places in 1980.

On August 24, 1984, Gentry County celebrated the centennial anniversary of the Gentry County Courthouse. The celebration was marked by the opening of the cornerstone, a parade, and the re-dedication of the courthouse.

MISSOURI JUDICIAL REPORT

FISCAL YEAR 1984

(For the period covering July 1, 1983 through June 30, 1984)

PREPARED BY:
OFFICE OF STATE COURTS ADMINISTRATOR
1105 REAR SOUTHWEST BOULEVARD
JEFFERSON CITY, MISSOURI 65101

Supreme Court of Missouri

ALBERT L. RENDLEN

CHIEF JUSTICE

TO HIS EXCELLENCY, THE GOVERNOR, THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY AND MEMBERS OF THE JUDICIARY:

On behalf of the Judiciary of the State of Missouri, I am pleased to transmit the Missouri Judicial Report for Fiscal Year 1984. This report highlights the activities of the Supreme Court, Court of Appeals, and the Circuit Court from July 1, 1983, through June 30, 1984.

It is sometimes easy to view the statistics in this report as mere numbers, without a recognition of the time and dedication each represents. Filings and dispositions involve interpersonal interactions, judgment, research, and adherence to detailed procedures--all needed to insure that matters entrusted to the judiciary are handled swiftly, fairly and in accordance with the law. In addition, each circuit must constantly strive to incorporate new directives and to modify its operations to more efficiently meet the challenges which are placed on it.

This report is the result of the efforts of many individuals in Missouri's Judicial Branch of government. Information necessary to detail the activities of the Judiciary was provided by judges and clerks throughout the state. We hope this report will provide you with useful information regarding the courts in Missouri.

Respectfully submitted,

Albert L. Rendlen
Chief Justice of the Supreme Court and Presiding Officer of the Judicial Conference of Missouri

FOREWORD

About this report . . .

The Missouri Judicial Report prepared pursuant to RSMo 476.350 and Supreme Court Rule 82.03 details the 735,679 cases filed and 713,306 cases disposed in the courts from July 1, 1983 through June 30, 1984. This report is divided into four sections. The Year in Review summarizes significant activities and accomplishments of the judiciary during the year. The Statistical Summary section highlights caseload activity and trends for the Supreme Court, Court of Appeals, and the Circuit Court. The Detailed Statistics section provides a further breakdown of the filings, dispositions, and pending caseload for the State's Courts. The organization and functions of Missouri's Court System is shown in the Appendices.

I wish to acknowledge and express my thanks to the conscientious efforts of judges and clerks who provided the information contained in this report. The cooperation and assistance of all who made this publication possible is greatly appreciated.

YEAR IN REVIEW

There were numerous noteworthy events and achievements in Missouri's court system this year.

Workload: Cases filed in the Supreme Court were comprised of about 400 appeals and writs as well as 590 original proceedings. In the Court of Appeals, appeal and writ filings totaled 2,852 while dispositions numbered 3,159, the highest number of dispositions to date. A total of 721,051 cases were filed in the circuit, juvenile, associate and probate divisions of the Circuit Court; 698,415 cases, 97 percent of the number of cases filed, were disposed. This resulted in one of the highest disposition to filing ratios ever in the Circuit Court.

Judicial Transfers: The Supreme Court made more than 1,500 judicial transfers throughout the year. Over 1,000 of these resulted in a judge traveling outside his circuit to hear one or more cases. Thirty judges accepted over 15 transfers each. The judicial transfer, which provides for the temporary replacement of a judge who has been disqualified or is away from the court, is an important factor in the efficient administration of justice in Missouri.

Use of Associate Circuit Judges: Associate circuit judges disposed 29,934 (29 percent) of the nearly 103,000 circuit division cases that were disposed. Statewide, 24,951 (31 percent) of the circuit civil cases and 4,983 (23 percent) of the circuit criminal cases were disposed by associate circuit judges. Every circuit had some share of its circuit division cases handled by associate circuit judges with the percentages ranging from 1 to 70 percent.

Crime Victims' Compensation Act Judgments: Statewide, 23,940 Crime Victims' Compensation Act judgments were entered against defendants sentenced to imprisonment, given a suspended imposition of sentence or placed under supervision of the State Board of Probation and Parole or a county parole officer. The Circuit Court disbursed nearly $600,000 to the Crime Victims' Compensation Fund.

Financial Review: Just under $49 million, about 2 percent of the total general revenue expenditures, was spent for operation of the judiciary. Nearly three-fourths of this, $36.2 million, was expended for the Circuit Court System. About $5.1 million (10 percent) was appropriated for the Public Defender Program while $4.2 million (9 percent) was expended for the Court of Appeals. The Supreme Court's share of the expenditures was approximately $2 million (about 4 percent of the total), and $1.4 million (3 percent) was allocated to the State Courts Administrator's Office.

Judicial Pay Raise and Other Legislation: Recognizing that the ability to attract and keep qualified judges is one of the most important ingredients for a sound judiciary, the state legislature approved salary increases for Supreme Court, Court of Appeals, circuit and associate circuit judges. Prior to the increases, Missouri's pay for judges ranked in the bottom 25 percent when compared to other states. These raises resulted from the cooperative efforts of all three branches of government, having been recommended by the Missouri Advisory Commission on State Government Recruitment, Retirement and Compensation appointed by Governor Christopher Bond.

During the year the 83rd General Assembly passed a number of bills impacting the judiciary. These bills included elimination of trials de novo in misdemeanor and county ordinance violation cases, repeal of the former speedy trial act, a number of changes in the area of child support obligations, the selection of petit jurors in third and fourth class counties, required persons convicted of vehicular manslaughter or driving while intoxicated to pay into the Crime Victims' Compensation Fund, and provided that an arrest for a municipal or county alcohol related traffic offense may be the basis for an administrative suspension or revocation of driving privileges. Additional compensation for court reporters, juvenile officers, circuit clerks, circuit and prosecuting attorneys, most county officials and for jurors when authorized by the county or city was made possible through S.B. 581 and S.B. 601.

Committees and Associations: Many Supreme Court committees, committees comprised of circuit, deputy and division clerks and a number of judicial and clerical associations made significant contributions to the judiciary.

The Circuit Court Budget Committee, responsible for making recommendations regarding the Circuit Court budget and overseeing the Circuit Court personnel system, met several times throughout the year. The committee implemented a special projects assistance program to provide temporary funding for projects aimed at improving efficiency within the various divisions of the Circuit Court. More than 50 offices statewide participated in the program, undertaking such projects as microfilming, reorganizing files, entering data into new computer systems, making an inventory of records to identify files eligible for destruction and preparing cost bills for overdue monies.

The State Judicial Records Committee, responsible for the management of court records, developed computerization guidelines and additions to Administrative Rule 4 for improved record keeping systems and methods. The committee also developed statistical information needed for improved court management.

The Presiding Judges' Executive Committee undertook several projects including the development of guidelines on the roles and responsibilities of presiding judges, publication of a newsletter, development of recommended protocol for visiting judges and coordination and development of agendas for statewide presiding judge meetings.

The Committee on Jury Instructions and Charges - Criminal formulated revisions and additions to Missouri Approved Instructions - Criminal (MAI-CR) relating to homicide, assault, driving while intoxicated and tampering. All have effective dates on or before January 1, 1985. The Committee on Jury Instructions - Civil developed proposed instructions for comparable fault.

Upon recommendation of the Judicial Education Committee the Supreme Court sponsored a four-day Missouri College for Trial Judges which 93 circuit and associate circuit judges attended. A survey course covering civil and criminal instructions, evidence, juvenile procedures, civil law and domestic relations was attended by 81 judges. In conjunction with the Missouri Bar three regional evidence seminars were attended by nearly 200 judges. Several judges participated in the Alcohol and Drug seminars made available by the Supreme Court.

Two clerk handbook committees prepared manuals detailing clerical procedure in the courts. As a result the Court Clerk Handbook was updated and a Probate Clerk Handbook was made available for the first time.

The Missouri Association of Probate and Associate Circuit Judges held two annual meetings in FY 1984, one in October and one in April. Guardianships, new legislation, automation, buyers' and sellers' rights, documentary evidence, punitive damages and the judiciary's responsibility for victims of crime were on the programs.

The Missouri Association of Probate and Associate Division Clerks also held annual meetings in October and April, highlighting improved accounting systems, the Probate Clerk Handbook and new legislation.

In May the Missouri Municipal and Associate Circuit Judges' Association presented the annual Missouri Courts Conference. This conference was attended by judges, prosecutors and law enforcement officers. On the agenda were arraignments, warrants, bond forfeitures, contempt, discovery, substance abuse treatment, DWI enforcement, record keeping and traffic case reporting.

The Circuit Clerks and Recorders Association met in September in Kansas City; the program covered bail bonds, the Sheriffs' Retirement Fund, court cost collections and child support procedures.

The Judicial Finance Commission resolved four budget disputes, three originating from the St. Louis metropolitan area and one from Greene County. Formal hearings were conducted in three of the matters while the fourth was resolved without a hearing.

Automation: More than 100 offices expressed an interest in automating some of their office functions, and technical assistance was provided to several courts. A plan to develop a standard software package, tailored to the specific needs of courts in Missouri was formulated and approved by the legislature.

More Circuit Court judges and clerks received automated pending dockets, case histories and age of pending cases reports. Other management reports were developed to assist the Circuit Court in managing its caseload.

*As of June 30, 1984

With the start of the 1984 fiscal year, the automated Appellate Record Keeping System became operational for all three districts of the Court of Appeals and the Supreme Court. As a result, more detailed and timely information is available to manage rising caseloads.

Accounting and Record Keeping Improvements: Technical assistance in the areas of accounting, financial management and modern business record keeping systems was made available on a regular basis. This assistance is designed to insure that records are maintained at the detail needed and that monies are invested and disbursed on a timely basis.

Accounting and record keeping procedures and guidelines in the child support area were developed through a pilot project conducted in Adair, Boone, Howell, Lafayette and Pettis Counties.

The projects assisted offices in handling the increasing child support workload. More than 583,000 child support payments were processed, 18 percent more than in FY 1983. Close to 253,000 (43 percent of the total) were Title IV-D related; 330,000 (57 percent) were court ordered child support payments.

Microfilming Program: The Supreme Court continued its support of a statewide microfilming program, a program which assists in the management of Circuit Court records. Over a million court documents were microfilmed using 13 rotary and 2 planetary cameras loaned through the program. The Office of the Secretary of State provides a film processing service available to all courts in conjunction with the project.

Personnel Training: Training was offered to clerical personnel by the Office of State Courts Administrator. A managerial skills program was offered to clerks holding supervisory positions with 182 clerks attending. Regional clerk training covering a variety of topics was attended by 530 clerks. Two hundred municipal judges and clerks attended seminars designed for those divisions.

Judicial Conference: In September the Judicial Conference met jointly with the Missouri Bar. The Conference, consisting of all Supreme Court, Court of Appeals, circuit and associate circuit judges as well as retired judges and commissioners, is charged with studying the organization, rules, procedures, practices, work accomplished, results, and administrative problems of the judiciary.

Central Transcribing Service: Three hundred eighty-five requests for transcripts were received in FY 1984, 174 (82 percent) more than in FY 1983. Nearly 40,000 pages were prepared, an increase of about 5,000 pages over the previous fiscal year, and the most ever produced. The Central Transcribing Service was asked to prepare 231 appeal transcripts, comprised of 167 civil appeals, 52 criminal appeals and 12 juvenile appeals. In addition there were 128 guilty pleas and sentencings, 5 preliminary hearings, 14 special requests from judges and 7 miscellaneous requests.

Changes in the Courts: Several judgeships changed during the year. In addition the Southern District Court of Appeals moved to new quarters and a number of courts implemented new security procedures.

Two judges, Judge Solbert Wasserstrom of the Western District Court of Appeals and Judge Murry Randall, a circuit judge from the 22nd Circuit, both retired. Another, Judge Richard Sprinkle, circuit judge from Jackson County, resigned to return to private practice. Judge Robert Berrey, a circuit judge from Jackson County, was appointed to replace Judge Wasserstrom, creating the need for a new circuit judge in the 16th Circuit.

Vacancies were also created by the deaths of four judges. These include Judge Richard Chamier, 14th Circuit; Judge James May, 16th Circuit; Judge George Cloyd, 21st Circuit; and Judge V. James Ruddy, 21st Circuit.

New circuit judges who began their judgeships during the year include Judge William W. Ely, 16th Circuit; Judge Tom J. Helms, 16th Circuit; Judge James R. Hartenbach, 21st Circuit; Judge Kenneth M. Weinstock, 21st Circuit; and Judge Thomas C. Mummert III, 22nd Circuit. Judge James M. Cooksey from the 14th Circuit is the only new associate circuit judge to be appointed during the fiscal year.

STATISTICAL

STATISTICAL SUMMARY

The statistical summaries that follow highlight a number of accomplishments in the judiciary. Filings in the Supreme Court included more than 400 appeals and writs as well as 590 original proceedings, the largest number of original proceedings filed in at least the past five years.

The Court of Appeals achieved a disposition to filing ratio for appeals and writs of 1.11, the highest in 10 years. There were 2,852 appeals and writs filed; dispositions totaled 3,159, an increase of 177 (6 percent) over FY 1983.

A total of 721,051 cases were filed in the circuit, juvenile, associate and probate divisions of the Circuit Court; 698,415 cases, 97 percent of the number of filings, were disposed. The Circuit Court has greatly improved its disposition to filing ratio over the past six years, with this year's ratio of .97 equal to last year's high.

Cases filed in the circuit divisions exceeded 110,400, surpassing the number filed in FY 1983 by more than 1,750 cases (2 percent). There were 102,987 cases disposed, resulting in a disposition to filing ratio of .93.

The associate divisions achieved their highest disposition to filing ratio ever — .98. There were 577,629 cases filed and 563,644 cases disposed with the small claims and misdemeanor caseloads reaching all-time highs.

The juvenile divisions, where 19,720 cases were filed and 19,301 cases were disposed, also achieved a high disposition to filing ratio of .98. For the past four years the juvenile divisions have consistently disposed at least 98 percent of the number of cases that were filed.

Finally, the number of decedents', minors' and incapacitated/disabled estates opened in the probate divisions increased to almost 12,000.

SUPREME COURT STATISTICAL SUMMARY

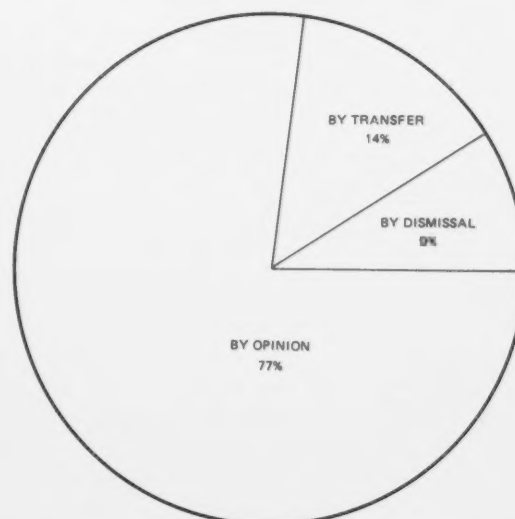

Filings in the Supreme Court included more than 400 appeals and writs as well as 590 original proceedings, the largest number of original proceedings filed in at least the past five years. The number of civil appeals filed was up over the previous year's total and the percentage of cases disposed by opinion was among the highest in at least the past nine years.

APPEALS

There were 134 appeals filed with the Supreme Court, including 106 civil appeals and 28 criminal appeals. The Court disposed almost 160 cases including direct appeals, petitions for writs that were sustained, applications to transfer and recommendations that were sustained and certifications from the Court of Appeals. Over 120 of the cases disposed, representing 77 percent of the total, were disposed by opinion. This is the second largest percentage disposed by opinion since

WRITS

A total of 283 petitions for writs were filed, with an even greater number (295) disposed. About one-third of the writs (95) were writs of mandamus; 29 percent (81) were writs of prohibition; about one-fourth (74) were writs of habeas corpus; the rest were quo warranto and other types of writs.

Two-hundred fifty of the 295 writs were denied, representing 85 percent of the total. Forty (13 percent) of the writs were sustained. the largest number sustained since FY 1978, with more writs of prohibition sustained (22) than any other. Five writs (2 percent) were dismissed, withdrawn, quashed or transferred.

ORIGINAL PROCEEDINGS

A total of 590 original proceedings were filed, the highest number since separate statistics for original proceedings began to be reported in FY 1979. The number of original proceedings has increased yearly with this year's filings surpassing last year's number by 77 proceedings (15 percent) and the number five years ago by 240 proceedings (69 percent).

SUPREME COURT APPLICATIONS TO TRANSFER AND OTHER ORIGINAL PROCEEDINGS FY 1980 through FY 1984

There were 541 applications to transfer filed, 75 more than in FY 1983 and 134 more than the number filed just three years ago. The court considered 498 of these, sustaining 50 and denying the remaining 448. In addition two recommendations and 27 certifications were filed by the Court of Appeals.

Several matters involving the retirement, removal and discipline of members of the bar were filed in the Supreme Court. There were six disbarments, eight reinstatements, one retirement and five other matters filed this year. Most of the matters considered in these categories were sustained, with three of the reinstatement cases being denied or dismissed.

MOTIONS

A total of 495 motions were filed and 486, 98 percent of the number of motions filed, were disposed. Only 53 (11 percent) of the motions were for rehearing or transfer, the smallest percentage in at least the past six years. Most of the motions for rehearing or transfer (52 of 53) were overruled, while a wide variety of other motions were sustained (92 percent).

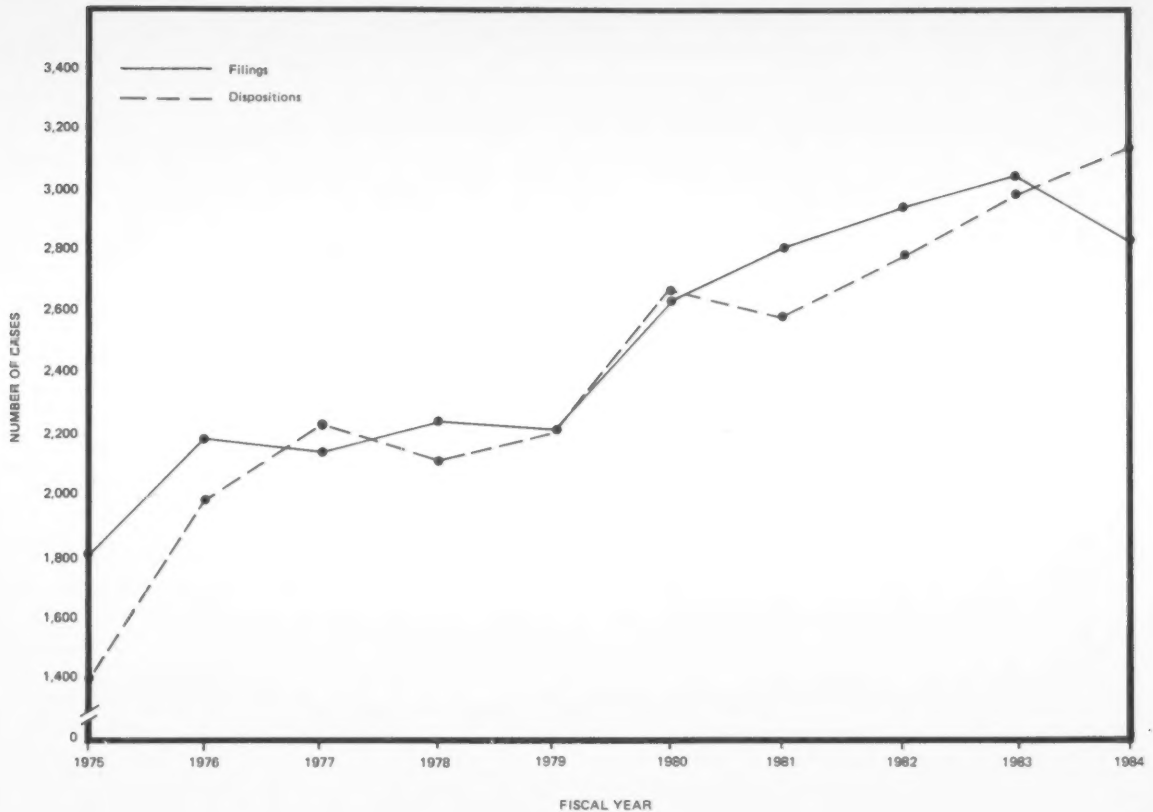

COURT OF APPEALS STATISTICAL SUMMARY

The Court of Appeals disposed more appeals and writs than ever before and achieved the highest disposition to filing ratio in the past 10 years. The overall ratio was 1.11, with all districts of the Court of Appeals achieving ratios greater than 1.00. The court reduced its pending caseload, which declined by 307 cases (12 percent) between the beginning and the end of the fiscal year.

For the first time statistics are available through the automated Appellate Record Keeping System for all districts of the Court of Appeals. As a result information not presented in past Annual Reports is included.

Figure 7

COURT OF APPEALS TEN-YEAR WORKLOAD SUMMARY: APPEALS AND WRITS FY 1975 through FY 1984

APPEALS

A total of 2,415 appeals, comprised of 1,750 civil and 665 criminal matters, were filed in the Court of Appeals. The court disposed 2,752 appeals, the largest number to date and 337 more than the number of appeals filed. This resulted in a high disposition to filing ratio of 1.14.

Dispositions: An average of 86 appeals were disposed per judge, up from about 80 appeals per judge in FY 1983, and almost equal to the all-time high of 86.7 reached in 1977. (Appeals are disposed by divisions of the court; looking at the average disposition per judge provides a measure of the rate of dispositions as compared to previous years when the number of judges differed.)

Opinions were written in 1,549 (56 percent) of the appeals disposed, almost 200 more cases involving opinions than last fiscal year. Dispositions by transfer with opinion to the Pending Appeals: Of the 2,176 appeals pending at the end of the fiscal year, about two-thirds had transcripts or briefs due. The remainder were ready for docketing, were under submission to the court, were waiting for opinion mandates to be sent or were awaiting rulings on post opinion motions.

As of June 30, 1984, approximately half (51 percent) of the appeals pending in the Court of Appeals were less than one month old. Another 19 percent were between 1 and 2 months of age. There was nearly an equal percentage of appeals (about 13 percent) in the 2-3 and 3-6 month categories, and only 4 percent of the cases were pending over 6 months.

Time Between Significant Events: The court has little direct control over many of the significant events occurring with an appeal since time limits are established by rule. The court has major control over two periods of time.

COURT OF APPEALS PERCENT OF APPEALS PENDING BY AGE AS OF JUNE 30, 1984

The first is from the time the appeal is ready for docketing until it is submitted for decision. The second is from the time the case is submitted until the opinion is handed down.

An average of 46 days elapsed from the time the case was ready for docketing until it was submitted. The average for criminal cases was 32 days, for civil, 54 days. It took less time on the average, about 34 days, for an opinion to be handed down once the case had been submitted for decision. Criminal cases were under submission an average of 24 days, while civil appeals took about 39 days from the time they were submitted until an opinion was handed down.

WRITS

With 437 writs filed and 407 writs disposed, FY 1984 was the third highest year for writs in the past ten years. Most (240) of the writs filed were writs of prohibition. One hundred nineteen writs of mandamus and 74 writs of habeas corpus were filed, the largest numbers in these categories since FY 1980.

CIRCUIT COURT STATISTICAL SUMMARY

CIRCUIT DIVISIONS

Statewide 110,426 cases were filed and 102,987 cases were disposed, resulting in a disposition to filing ratio of .93. Civil cases filed increased by more than 2,500 (3 percent). In addition the courts disposed 98 percent of the number of criminal cases filed, the largest percentage in the last seven years.

CIVIL CASELOAD

Civil cases filed totaled 88,212 while dispositions numbered 81,227. The circuit divisions achieved a disposition to filing ratio of .92, with 21 counties having disposition to filing ratios of 1.00 or greater.

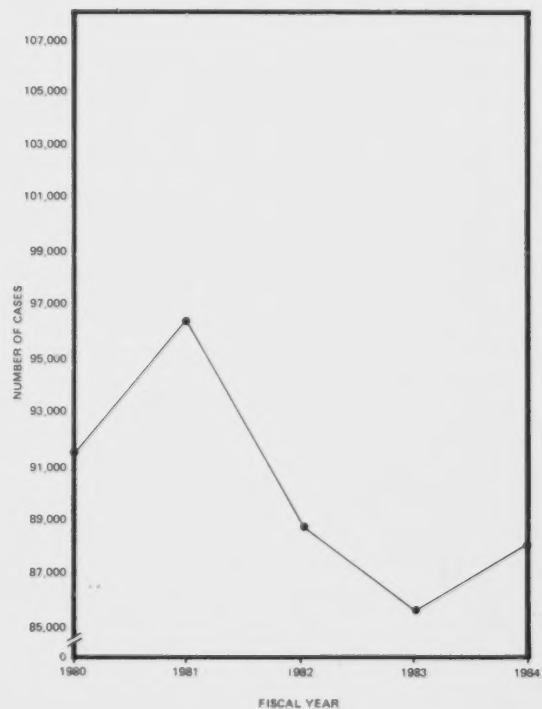

Approximately 60 percent of the cases filed and disposed were domestic relations cases, about 30 percent were tort, contract, eminent domain and miscellaneous civil cases and less than 10 percent were equity cases.

Filings and dispositions for domestic relations cases totaled 55,923 and 51,850 respectively, resulting in a disposition to filing ratio of .93. Notable are the .97 ratios for dissolutions and miscellaneous domestic relations cases.

For equity matters, where 5,668 cases were filed and 5,423 cases were disposed, the ratio was a high .96. A ratio of 1.39 was achieved for the real estate cases.

Figure 12

CIRCUIT DIVISIONS
CIVIL FILINGS
FY 1980 through FY 1984

There were 26,621 filings and 23,951 dispositions in tort, contract, eminent domain and miscellaneous civil cases, including drivers' license revocation reviews, habeas corpus, tax actions, registrations of foreign judgments and 27.26 cases. The overall disposition to filing ratio was .90, with the ratio for the contract cases a high 1.02.

Dispositions: A slightly larger proportion of the civil cases was disposed by court trial and a slightly smaller share of the total was dismissed when compared with the previous fiscal year. Court tried cases accounted for almost two-thirds (51,031 or 63 percent) of the civil cases disposed, while 953 cases (1 percent) were tried by jury. Dismissals comprised approximately one-third (26,057 or 32 percent) of the civil dispositions. A change of venue was granted in 487 civil cases and 2,699 cases were disposed through other manners of disposition, including removal to a federal court and consolidation.

Pending Caseload: The civil pending caseload in the circuit divisions increased by 6,985 cases (8 percent) to 100,549. While statewide the civil pending caseload grew, 20 counties reduced the number of civil cases pending.

CRIMINAL CASELOAD

With 22,214 felonies, misdemeanors and municipal trials de novo filed and 21,760 cases disposed, the circuit divisions achieved a disposition to filing ratio of .98, the highest since FY 1977.

Dispositions: The number of court trials rose significantly with 3,573 trials held, an increase of 442 trials (14 percent) over last year and the largest number of court trials in the past several years. Over 1,000 criminal jury trials were conducted statewide.

Dispositions through a change of venue continued to increase. A change of venue was granted in 881 criminal cases, 101 (13 percent) more than in FY 1983 and 215 (32 percent) more than two years ago.

Cases dismissed and nolle prossed both declined in number. There were 1,656 dismissals (8 percent of the total), the smallest number of dismissals in the past five years. Prosecutors nolle prossed 2,190 cases (10 percent of the criminal dispositions), 288 fewer than last year.

A plea of guilty was accepted in 11,870 cases (55 percent of the total).

There were 2,229 misdemeanors disposed in the circuit divisions, an increase of 354 cases (19 percent) over the number last year and 870 cases (64 percent) over the number two years ago.

Pending Caseload: The circuit divisions ended the year with 13,087 criminal cases pending, an increase of 454 cases (3.8 percent) since July 1, 1983. While statewide there was a small increase in the pending caseload, 47 counties and the City of St. Louis reduced their number of pending criminal cases during the year.

JUVENILE DIVISIONS

With 19,720 cases filed and 19,301 cases disposed, the juvenile divisions achieved a high .98 disposition to filing ratio, the fourth consecutive year that at least 98 percent of the number of cases filed have been disposed. New cases as well as supplemental filings are counted in the caseload.

More than one-third (37 percent) of the allegations in juvenile cases involved violations of state law or municipal ordinances. Over one-fourth of the allegations (28 percent) resulted from child abuse or neglect while adoptions and status offenses accounted for 16 percent and 14 percent of the total respectively. About 5 percent of the allegations stemmed from terminations of parental rights.

Of the over 19,000 cases disposed, 49 percent were through an uncontested hearing, while 13 percent were disposed in contested proceedings. Another 17 percent of the cases were dismissed and 13 percent were disposed through adoption hearings. Only 8 percent of the juvenile cases were disposed through a transfer to another jurisdiction, through a termination of parental rights, or through certification for prosecution under general law.

ASSOCIATE CIRCUIT DIVISIONS

There were 577,629 cases filed and 563,644 cases disposed, resulting in a disposition to filing ratio of .98, the highest ever in the associate divisions. The ratio was at or above previously established high levels for every type of case with minor exception. In addition record numbers of small claims and misdemeanor cases were filed and disposed.

Civil actions involving a controversy of $5,000 or less, small claims cases, felony complaints, misdemeanors and infractions, state traffic cases and those municipal ordinance and traffic violations where the municipality has elected to have its cases filed directly into the associate circuit divisions are included in the associate divisions' caseload.

CIVIL CASELOAD

The number of civil cases filed increased 3 percent while dispositions were up a notable 12 percent. There were 92,939 cases filed, surpassing the previous year's filings by 3,069 cases; 91,646 cases were disposed, 9,522 more than in FY 1983. This translates to a disposition to filing ratio of .99, the highest to date for associate civil cases.

Record numbers of small claims cases were filed and disposed. With 19,106 filings and 17,572 dispositions, associate divisions achieved a disposition to filing ratio for small claims cases of .92, equal to the high set in FY 1983.

Manner of Dispositions: Over 18,350 court trials were conducted for civil and small claims cases, an increase of nearly 870 trials over the number in FY 1983 and almost 3,000 more court trials than in FY 1982. Proportionately fewer civil cases were disposed through a judgment without trial and more civil cases were dismissed. Judgments without trial accounted for 50 percent (45,981) of the civil dispositions and 36 percent (32,582) were dismissed.

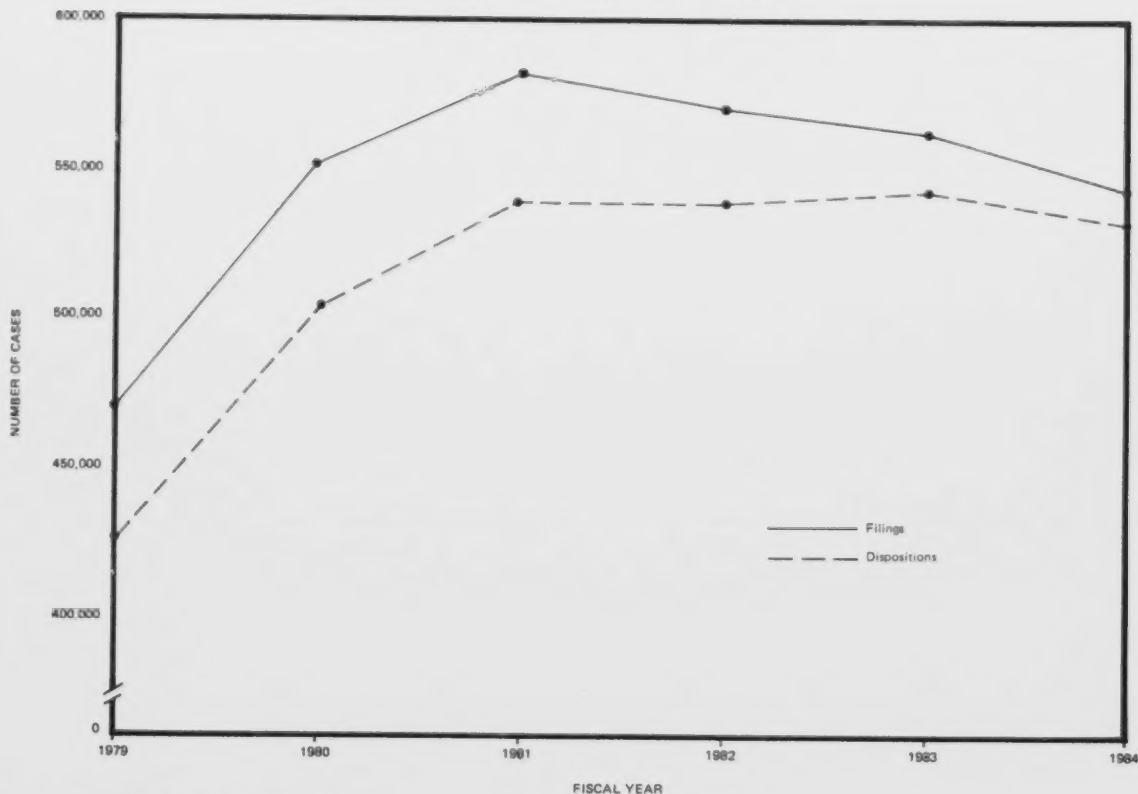

CRIMINAL CASELOAD

While fewer felony complaints, traffic cases and municipal cases were handled in the associate divisions, more misdemeanors were filed and disposed than ever before. There were 25,578 felony complaints filed and 25,072 felony complaints disposed, resulting in a disposition to filing ratio of .98, the second largest ratio since FY 1979.

346,043 and 341,918 respectively, with the disposition to filing ratio reaching a high .99.

A total of 33,732 municipal cases were filed directly into the associate divisions, while 31,336 cases were disposed. The disposition to filing ratio for these cases was .93.

There were 60,231 misdemeanor cases filed, an increase of more than 4,000 (7 percent) over the number filed in FY 1983. The 56,100 misdemeanor cases disposed surpassed last year's total by 6,131 (12 percent). Despite the record number of filings, the associate divisions achieved a disposition to filing ratio of .93 for misdemeanor cases.

Manner of Dispositions: The number of felony cases bound over was at its highest level in the past three years. Some 11,230 felony cases, representing 45 percent of the total, were bound over. Dismissals accounted for 9,648 (38 percent) of the felony cases disposed, and the charge was reduced to a misdemeanor in 3,942 (16 percent) of the cases.

There were 4,976 court trials involving misdemeanors, an increase of almost 1,000 over the number of court trials last year. In addition a change of venue was granted in 1,400 misdemeanor cases, an increase of 453 cases (48 percent) when compared with FY 1983. The number of guilty pleas accepted in court also rose substantially, up 3,630 (15 percent) to 28,649.

Most of the traffic cases were disposed by a written guilty plea with 211,264 (62 percent) of the cases disposed in this manner. The associate divisions used a traffic violations bureau to dispose more than 42,000 (12 percent) of the cases.

Pending Caseload: The pending caseload in the associate divisions rose by nearly 14,000 cases (5 percent) with the greatest increases occurring among the misdemeanor and traffic case types. Almost 60 percent of the total growth in pending is accounted for in these two case types. There was also a sizeable increase in the number of municipal cases pending, up nearly 2,400 cases (12 percent) between the beginning and the end of the year.

PROBATE DIVISIONS

This year 13,276 cases were opened in Missouri's probate divisions and 12,483 cases were closed. The number of decedents', minors' and incapacitated/disabled estates opened as well as the number of minors' and incapacitated/disabled estates closed were at their highest levels in three years. The disposition to filing ratio of .94 was consistent with the previous year.

As a result of recent revisions in state statutes the terminology and procedures for guardianships and conservatorships were substantially changed during the fiscal year. Briefly, the changes in terminology added guardianships for incapacitated and/or disabled persons, replacing what was referred to as incompetents' estates. The revisions also clarified that conservatorships could be assigned apart from guardianships. For purposes of this statistical summary, the revised terminology is used, even though some of the cases may have been originally filed and disposed under the old statutes.

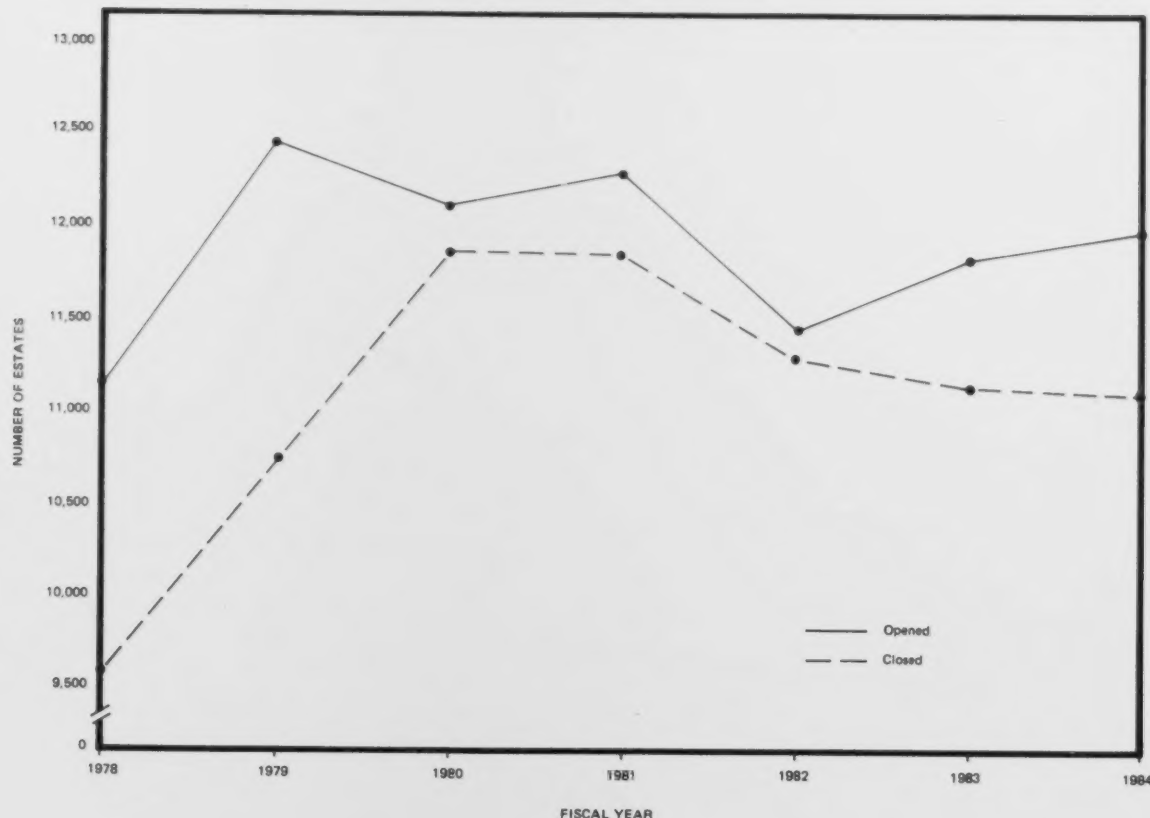

DECEDENTS' ESTATES

A total of 8,491 decedents' estates were opened with an almost equal number (8,382) closed during the fiscal year. This resulted in a disposition to filing ratio of .99.

Of the decedents' estates filed, 6,757 (80 percent) involved supervised administration, while 1,734 (20 percent) were to be administered independently. The frequency of independent administration for decedents' estates has been gradually increasing since the provisions became effective in 1981.

MINORS' ESTATES

A total of 1,144 minors' estates were opened, comprised of 629 (55 percent) combined conservatorships and guardianships, 313 (27 percent) guardianships only and 202 (18 percent) conservatorships only. An almost equal number of estates (1,142) were closed. Overall the probate divisions achieved a disposition to filing ratio of 1.00.

INCAPACITATED/DISABLED ESTATES

There were 2,348 incapacitated/disabled estates opened, the most in three years. This caseload was comprised of 1,664 (71 percent) combined guardianships and conservatorships, 607 (26 percent) guardianships only and 77 (3 percent) conservatorships only. The probate divisions closed 1,575 incapacitated/disabled estates, 81 (5 percent) more than last year and 121 (8 percent) more than two years ago.

The disposition to filing ratio for incapacitated/disabled estates was .67, up from last year's ratio of .64. While this is lower than for

MENTAL HEALTH PROCEEDINGS

Filings for the year totaled 1,293 while dispositions numbered 1,384, resulting in a disposition to filing ratio of 1.07, the highest in the last three years. With dispositions exceeding filings, the pending caseload for mental health proceedings declined, dropping by 91 (12 percent) to 699 cases at the end of the fiscal year.

ABBREVIATED MATTERS

The probate divisions reported 5,543 applications for refusals of letters filed, including 1,922 creditor refusals and 3,621 spouse/minor refusals. There were 4,176 applications for 96-hour detention and treatment, and small estates affidavits numbered 2,821, the most since FY 1982.

DETAILED STATISTICS

DETAILED STATISTICS

The following tables provide detailed caseload information not included in the statistical summary. Many of the tables include the percentage change in pending, disposition to filing ratio and pending to disposition ratio for each case type. An explanation of the percentage change in pending, disposition to filing ratio, and the pending to disposition ratio is provided below to make the tables easier to understand and use.

Percentage Change in Pending—provides an indication of the relative increase or decrease in pending caseload. A positive number indicates an increase in pending cases, zero indicates no change and a negative number means the pending caseload decreased during the year. The percentage change in pending is calculated by subtracting pending beginning caseload from the pending at the end and dividing the difference by the beginning pending.

Disposition to Filing Ratio—compares the number of cases disposed to the number of cases filed during the year to give an indication of how well the court is keeping pace with the workload. A ratio of 1.00 indicates that the court disposed of an equal number of cases as the number filed. A ratio of 0.50 indicates that the court was able to dispose half the number of cases that were filed. The disposition to filing ratio is calculated by dividing total dispositions by total filings.

Pending to Disposition Ratio—provides an indication of the size of the pending caseload relative to the court's rate of disposition. A pending to disposition ratio of 2.00 means that there are twice as many cases pending compared to the number of cases disposed during the year. The pending to disposition ratio is calculated by dividing the total number of cases pending by the number of cases disposed.
